

Our Signature Event

Join us...

The Alberta Business Family Institute and the University of Alberta's School of Business invite you to our second annual Signature event as we highlight another successful Canadian business family story.

The evening is sure to be filled with fine refreshments, great food, inspirational presentation and dialogue—and yes, a tasteful bit of ceremony.

Our appreciation to RBC Financial Group for their continued sponsorship and commitment to business families.

The fabric of Canadian business has been woven by business families for generations.

The Alberta Business Family Institute (ABFI) is a place where business families receive guidance and tools to build on their success. Resources from around the world and from our communities assist our members and their professionals in understanding the dynamics unique to business families.

The Alberta Business Family Institute is “run by families for families.”
The Institute is the direct link between business families and the research and study of family enterprise at the University of Alberta’s School of Business Centre for Entrepreneurship and Family Enterprise (CEFE).
